MORROW QUSIS CUSTODIAN OF NEGRO LYNCHED

Reward of $500 Offered For Arrest of Each Man in Versailles Mob.

Frankfort, Ky., March 14.—Governor Morrow this morning issued a proclamation removing from office Jailer John H. Edger of Woodford County from whom the negro, Richard James, was taken Sunday morning and lynched. A copy of the proclamation was to be sent to Edgers. This is the first removal from office of a public official under the act of 1920, which declares that if a prisoner be taken from the custody of an officer it shall be prima facie evidence of his failure to perform his duty and of neglect of duty. An order declaring the office vacant was spread on the minutes of the Executive Journal.

Governor Morrow this morning issued the following proclamation:

"It has been made to appear to me that on the morning of March 13, 1921, a mob assembled in Woodford County, Kentucky, and unlawfully took from the lawful custody of John H. Edger, Jailer of said county, the person of Richard James and immediately thereafter hanged him until he was dead. Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority invested and in compliance with the law of the Commonwealth in such cases made and provided, I hereby declare the office of Jailer of Woodford County, Kentucky, vacant and John H. Edger, Jailer of said county, is hereby removed."

The Governor also issued a statement in which he said: "I call upon all peace officers and all those chargeable with the enforcement of the law to bring these murderers to indictment and conviction" and calls attention of all those having charge of prisoners to the fact that the anti-lynching law will be vigorously enforced.

A copy of the proclamation was sent to the Jailer and to County Judge Edmund Mulcahy.

ley. The trouble was the result of an old grudge. Magistrate S. M. Malone viewed the body and the Sheriff of Oldham county took the slayer to the Lagrange jail. Smyser made no resistance. He said he was on his way to cut wood when he met Cooper and a quarrel resulted. Cooper was cut badly, there being three deep gashes in the back and one on the arm.

KENTUCKY STATISTICS SHOW MORE BIRTHS; FEWER DEATHS

Louisville, Ky., March 12.—Six thousand more babies were born in Kentucky in 1920 than in the preceding year and in 1920, 2,000 fewer persons died in the State, according to a preliminary report by J. F. Blackerby, State Registrar of Vital Statistics, to Dr. A. T. McCormack, State Health Officer. The increase in births is about 10 per cent and the decrease in deaths roughly 8 per cent.

The return of the large number of Kentuckians who were in France with the American armies to their homes, and the resultant resumption of normal social conditions, is the reason given by Mr. Blackerby for the increase in the number of births. The reduction in the number of deaths that occurred in the State he explained by pointing out that the fatalities due to communicable diseases have been reduced materially and that everywhere in Kentucky more attention has been paid to sanitation and health problems.

War on strange dogs at White Plains followed after the girl was bitten and all dogs acting in a strange manner are being slaughtered.

G. O. P. TO SHAKE PLUMS II APRIL

Republicans Are Pushing Claims For U. S. Offices In Kentucky

Louisville, Ky., March 12.—Republican leaders are expected to hold a conference here late in March or early in April for the purpose of discussing the distribution of Federal patronage in Kentucky. The actual date for the conference has not been agreed on as yet, so far as leaders here profess to know. In the meantime much speculation regarding the parceling out of positions is being indulged in, and various applicants for appointments are pressing their claims industriously.

E. H. Smith, Glasgow, is an active candidate for the post of United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, according to T. L. Humble, Republican campaign chairman of Barren County, who was in Louisville.

Mr. Smith has the backing of practically all the leading Republicans in politics of the Third district. Mr. Humble said he has hope of obtaining the appointment.

Besides Mr. Smith, others being mentioned for the appointment are John P. Hawley, Hardinsburg, who made the race for Congress from the Fourth District in the recent campaign; Robert H. Lucas, City Prosecutor of Louisville; M. H. Thatcher, attached to the city's legal department, and George DuRelle, Louisville, now a bankruptcy referee. Judge DuRelle has served as United States District Attorney here, and Mr. Thatcher has served as assistant.

Lilburn Phelps, Russell County, secretary of the Republican State Central Committee, is being mentioned for the post of Assistant District Attorney. He said that he did not know whether he would become an active candidate.

Thomas Jackson, Lebanon, is an active applicant for the post of Collector of Internal Revenue to succeed Elwood Hamilton, Democrat, and so is J. M. Perkins of Frankfort. Mr. Perkins was in Washington recently in the interest of his candidacy.

William E. Ross, sheriff of Jefferson county, is said to have the promise of certain influential Republican leaders here that they will exert themselves in an effort to obtain for him the post of United States Marshal for this district. Others being mentioned in that connection are George J. Long, Louisville, who once held the office; Leslie Larrimore, Greensburg, and R. B. Martin, Ohio county.

Thomas Walker, Lexington, and Inn Barber, formerly of Owingsville but now a resident of Louisville, are mentioned for the post of Collector of Customs, now held by Pres Ray, Democrat. Clayton Curd, Greenville, Third District committeeman, was an applicant for the appointment, but announced his withdrawal.

Despite the fact that Ludlow F. Petty, chief of police of Louisville seems to have the support of most of the leaders here for postmaster of Louisville, State Senator Herman F. Monroe hasn't given up hope. He is relying largely on the support of Frank Russell, who is said to be a close friend of President Warren G. Harding.

"INSURANCE SHARKS" LOOK OUT FOR THEM

Editor, The Hartford Herald,
Dear Sir:—From complaints coming to this Department there are several Insurance Companies soliciting and securing insurance in this State, which are not authorized by this Department to do business in Kentucky. Before taking insurance of any kind, every person owes it to himself (or herself) to find out if the agent is licensed to solicit insurance and if the company is authorized to do business in this State.

We know that you are interested in protecting the public against "Insurance Sharks" and, therefore, we are sending you a list, by classes, of all Insurance Companies authorized to do business in Kentucky, as of July 1st, 1920 and a supplemental list of those admitted since that date, so that you may keep same on file and be able to advise your readers as to the companies so authorized. Revised lists will be sent you from time to time as new companies are admitted, or licenses revoked.

Every agent must procure license from this Department and will be able to produce same if he has been legally appointed and proof of his authority is demanded by the public.

Very truly yours,
Manon Cornett, Deputy Insurance Commissioner.

The liabilities of the Leslie-Judge Company, which also published many books, sold on the installment plan, are estimated by the creditors at $2,210,000 and its assets at $420,000.

The claims of the creditors are shown to be in excess of $600,000, and the principal creditor is William Green, president of the William Green Corporation, a printing, bookbinding and electrotyping concern.

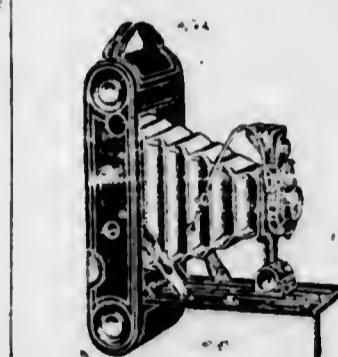

BOWLING GREEN GIRL, 13, IS ATTACKED BY NEGRO

Bowling Green, Ky., March 14.—Ruby Bernard, 13 years old, daughter of Mrs. Edward Bernard, widow, was attacked by a negro late Thursday evening at the old electric light plant, Tenth and Clay Streets. The child was on the way to the home of her grandfather, William O. Holland, former policeman, two blocks from the scene of the attack.

The negro, with a handkerchief concealing part of his face, stepped from behind the building, grabbed the child and choked her. He tried to force her behind the building but she clung to the fence and tried to scream.

A young white man came to her rescue. The negro escaped. Charles Smith, 19, negro, was taken before the girl but she failed to identify him and he was released.

N. Y. CENTRAL TO REDUCE WAGES OF 43,000 WORKERS

Washington, March 14.—The American Legion's legislative programme for the special session of Congress was outlined to President Warren G. Harding by F. W. Galbraith, *Jr., national commander of the legion, who said after the conference that the President was impressed by the necessity of making more adequate provision for war veterans, especially disabled men.

The matter of obtaining the return to the United States of Grover C. Bergdoll, wealthy Philadelphia draft evader, now in Germany, was not discussed with the President, Mr. Galbraith said.

At the "proper time," however, he added the question will be brought to the attention of the Administration. American Legion posts throughout the country, he said, shortly will start a concerted movement to get the slacker back to this country.

"He's one Boche we want," said Mr. Galbraith.

FARM EXTRACTS

INFORMATION FROM THE EXPERIMENT STATION — AGRICULTURAL PAPERS AND THE COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

At Washington

Fifteen thousand bills are usually introduced during the life of a Congress and less than 300 at most, generally pass, according to Gray Silver, Washington Representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation. Mr. Silver, as representative of the American farmer has accomplished wonderful things in the past year. Telling of his work Mr. Silver says:

"It is evident that the chances of any individual bill getting through Congress without special support and help are remote. In fact, Congress takes pretty much the attitude that it is not much interested in any proposition which is not sufficiently agitated to be brought forcibly to its attention. It proceeds upon the theory that the cry of any 'crying' need will be heard and, vice versa, if it is not heard the need is not a crying one."

"So you will find on the walls of my office at Washington a big bulleting board on which is listed each bill in which Agriculture is interested. Following the names of each bill is a record of its progress to date. The date of introduction, action or lack of action of committee to which it was referred, votes on the floor if any, and various other important points referring to the bills progress.

"We keep a careful record of each congressman's position and vote on each question of importance to agriculture. This record includes not merely his vote on the floor which may or may not be indicative, but his known attitude as well. The Congressional Record doesn't show it all by a good deal. Every two years a considerable portion of these men must come before the people of their districts for re-election. We believe it to be our plain duty to make the records of these men known to our members at that time. If a man has shown a broad and fair understanding of agricultural affairs we believe that fact should be placed before the voters and if on the other hand he has failed to grasp the importance of agriculture and to show a fair regard for its needs, then our members have a right to know that fact, too, we believe. This record will be a memory jogger that no congressman can afford to ignore.

"But we never have occasion to take a congressman by the lapel of the coat and ask him around the corner to whisper dark secrets into his ear. We never have need for secret meetings because we have no secret deals to pull off. Ours is an "open covenant openly arrived at." If ever there was one.

"By proper organization and coordination of efforts we can carry on such a campaign of ideas and information as to win Congress to the support of those principles essential to the adequate development of agriculture which—as all must one day realize—are therefore essential to the permanent and highest development of the Nation."

Manure Worth $4.06 Ton Special

late say

Lexington, Ky., March 11.—Manure alone when used on six experiment fields conducted by the State College of agriculture has produced an average crop increase worth $4.06 per ton of manure, according to results of the experiments which have been compiled by R. E. Stephenson, a member of the Soils and Crops Department. Limestone produced a crop increase worth $20.46, acid phosphate one worth $17.60, rock phosphate one worth $22.05 and lime and acid phosphate together an increase worth $59.46. Lime and rock phosphate when used together produced a crop increase worth $47.30. Corn was valued at $1.00 per bushel, wheat at $1.50 per bushel and hay from soybeans and clover at $1.00 per hundred pounds in calculating the values. The averages were figured on a per-acre basis for a four-year rotation of corn, soybeans, wheat and clover.

Nelson County Will Use More Fertilizer

Lexington, Ky., March 11.—Nelson county farmers are planning to use 20 cars of acid phosphate during the coming year, according to a report which has come to the Soils and Crops Department of the State College of Agriculture. Applied at the rate of 800 pounds per acre this material will produce a crop increase worth $11,460.00, members of the department say.

Crop For Lambs Increases Gains

Lexington, Ky.—By building a creep so that the lambs can be fed some grain where the ewes cannot get to it Kentucky farmers will be able to realize more rapid gains in the young animals, according to sheep specialists from the Kentucky State College of Agriculture. A good grain mixture for the youngsters is composed of one part by weight of corn, one part crushed oats, one part linseed oil meal and two parts wheat bran. It is a good practice to build a trough close to the ground in this creep so that the lambs may get at their food readily.

Control Pesky Insects

Only when we appreciate that possibly four-fifths of the whole animal kingdom consists of insects, and realize that almost everything that man uses and needs, is the natural food of one or more species of insects, do we begin to see the continual struggle for supremacy that is going on between man and insects. If insects were uncontrolled their depredations would soon drive the human race from existence just as in history they have driven man from certain regions by gaining the "upper hand."

What does it profit the farmer when he tills the soil well, plants the best of seed and tends the plots with the greatest of care, if the cutworms come at night and the grasshoppers by day to cut down and eat up the crop before the harvest? The entomologist must then assure the grower that the use of poison baits or some other measure will spare him to a large extent from further losses from the pest.

As every farmer knows, many insect pests are ready to attack the seed as soon as it is sowed. Others feed on the tiny plants as soon as they sprout, and myriads of chewing and sucking insects take their food from the growing plants and often seriously injure or destroy them before they are fully matured. Other insects injure farm animals and carry such cattle diseases as cattle fever, and such human ailments as typhoid fever and malaria. Likewise the distribution of bacteria and fungus diseases are caused to a large extent by insects.

Millions of dollars are saved each year through safeguards recommended by the entomologist. Occasionally he is able to devote his time to the study of beneficial insects, for the honey bee, the silk worm and other insects of great benefit to man are within the scope of economic entomology.

Sheep On The Farm

Sheep are not very generally kept on farms for supplying the home family with meat. There are many areas, especially in hilly or mountainous regions, where nearly every farm could keep a few mutton sheep to advantage. Boys' and girls' clubs in some parts of the country have done much to foster home production of mutton.

Sheep naturally graze over rather wide areas and seek a variety of plants. This habit particularly adapts them to being kept in large numbers on lands of sparse vegetation or furnishing a variety of grasses or other plants. They do better on short and fine grasses than on coarse or high feed. They will eat a good deal of brush, and if confined to small areas will do a fair job at cleaning up land. When used in this way on land producing brush only they cannot be expected to prove very satisfactory in the production of good lambs or good wool.

American Bureau

During the first thirty days of 1921 as much money was received from the State federations as was received during the first six months of last year by the American Farm Bureau Federation, according to Charles E. Gunnels, treasurer. The development of the various departments is more than keeping pace with the development of the Federation's financial resources.

Drive Very Flattering

It is service that counts and wins as the Farm Bureau in Lewis county has demonstrated.

Throughout the year 1920 the Lewis county Farm Bureau worked with a small membership—but they worked. And that fact has made the "drive" for 1921 members comparatively easy. The prospect for 500 members is very flattering.

Twenty-five farmers walked into the Farm Bureau headquarters in Vanceburg last week and without solicitation asked to join the county Bureau. Members who bought clover and grass seeds through the Bureau are coming in after their seed, renewing their pledges for 1921 and leaving with the Secretary orders for seed oats, cowpeas, soy beans and fertilizers. All are enthusiastic over the saving for the farmers through co-operation.

S. E. Bierley is president; B. B. Anderson, Vice-president; J. R. Parker, Secretary and A. S. Kelth treasurer in Lewis County.

Farm Bureau Progresses in Dixie

Secretary J. W. Coverdale, director of the Department of Organization of the American Farm Bureau Federation, recently returned from an extensive trip through the South and reports that the Farm Bureau movement is progressing rapidly. Lewis E. Taylor former secretary of the Indiana federation has been assigned to organization work in the South-eastern states. Harry F. Kapp, of Arkansas, has been added to the staff of the Department of Organization and will have charge of organization in the states of Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

Dairy Cow Feed Is Recommended

Lexington, Ky.—A ration which has been recommended for dairy cows by Prof. J. J. Hooper of the State College of Agriculture is composed of four pounds of corn meal, two pounds of wheat bran and two pounds of cottonseed meal. This is supplemented with 30 pounds of corn silage and 10 pounds of clover hay. A cow that is dry should receive six to eight pounds of this grain feed with the hay and silage while a fresh cow should receive a pound of grain with the hay and silage for every three and one-half pounds of milk produced.

To Lengthen Farm Crops

When one recalls that our long list of valuable plants originated from wild life, the improvement that has been made seems nothing short of miraculous.

Man has remolded nature so completely that in many cases the links between the first forms and the present types can be scarcely traced. Occasionally, men have worked wonders by making this or that combination, the successes remaining while the failures have been lost.

Gradually outstanding points of excellence have been noted and with this foundation still further improvement has been effected. In the field of farm crops the agronomist has unlocked a few of the secrets of nature and applied them in producing better grain, corn and hay.

The American Indian grew corn for food, but if he could see the thousands of acres of golden glow corn which originated from the work of one man, he would hardly recognize in the well-filled ears, any resemblance to his own dwarfed stalks and nubbins.

Agriculture to-day is producing better barley, oats, wheat, rye and corn than ever before; an industry has been built around a fiber crop brought into the state by agronomy; alfalfa is being bred to resist the ravages of winterkill; Sudan grass and soybeans are overcoming the handicaps of sandy soils; and practically every crop in Wisconsin's long list is being standardized and improved.

The agronomist, then, has been a faithful servant of agriculture. For the benefit of his fellow-farmers he has brought alfalfa, the wonder forage plant, from Asia; he has introduced Sudan grass from Africa to serve in definite place in America's crop rotation; he has brought in soybeans from China to build our soils and to improve our rations; he has adapted the hemp plant of China and Italy to our conditions; he has found in far away Turkey a wheat which because of its hardness would thrive in our climate; in fact he has visited practically every corner of the earth for the sake of garnering plants of economic value to the farmers of this and other states. His contribution to modern agriculture has been generous.

ATE 42 RAW EGGS IN THIRTY-NINE MINUTES

Drank Quart of Kerosene

Danville, Ky., March 11.—Boyle County has lost her champion egg-eater. David Cocanougher, who held this honor, has moved to Indianapolis, Ind., to make his future home. The greatest victory he ever won was in a contest where he swallowed forty-two raw eggs in thirty-nine minutes. This large volume of rich food in no way impaired Cocanougher's digestive apparatus, as he had a secret which served to keep him in apple pie order, but which was not discovered until he had given up the eating contest game. Always after winning a contest, he never entered any which he did not win; he drank a quart of ordinary coal oil and this relieved him of any unpleasant after effects.

UNCLE SAM MUST SOON BEGIN ECONOMY

Immediate Establishment Budget System Urged By New Treasury Chief

Washington, March 11.—Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, in his first official statement made public in the form of a letter to bankers, appealed to "the people generally" to stand for rigid economy in governmental expenditures and urged the immediate establishment of a national budget system.

The new Secretary, in his letter, discussed at length the nation's financial condition, declaring that the showing made in the last eight months had been "particularly encouraging."

There are, however, heavy drains to come on the Treasury this month and next, he said, and these require the floating of more short-term certificates of indebtedness, announcement of which he made coincident with the letter to the bankers.

"The nation can not afford extravagance," Mr. Mellon said, "and so far as possible, it must avoid entering new fields of expenditures. Figures on current operations of the Government show that the country's finances are sound, but that the situation calls for the utmost economy."

"The heavy requirements of the Government on account of necessary expenditures including interest and sinking fund on the public debt, and the maturity of $7,500,000,000 in short dated debt in the next two years or thereabouts, make it imperative that the greatest care and economy be exercised in matters affecting Government expenditures."

"The people generally must become more interested in saving the Government's money than in spending it. A thorough-going National budget system must be established and the Government's expenses brought into relation to its income."

The belief was expressed by the new Secretary, however, that the first nine months of the fiscal year, or to March 31, would show the Treasury had made ends meet with a slight surplus to use against the great war debt. Payments on the war debt necessarily must be slow, he said, explaining that the heavy payments to the railroads would hamper seriously previous plans to lower the debt.

In notifying the bankers of the issues, Mr. Mellon said he felt it to be his duty to inform them at the outset of his administration of the probable requirements of the Government in the coming months and to say something concerning its financial program.

GRAYSON CONTINUES AS MR. WILSON'S DOCTOR

Washington, Mar. 12.—Arrangements were understood to have been made whereby Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson will continue as physician to President Wilson. Dr. Grayson's intimate and expert knowledge of Mr. Wilson's ailment, it was said, made it advisable to continue his services, and his work as head of the naval dispensary here, to which he was recently assigned, will not interfere with such an arrangement.

The outstanding happening of the past week of international importance was the beginning of the execution of the plan agreed upon by the Allies at the recent London Conference for enforcing payment by the Germans of the indemnity assessed against them for the destruction
they wrought in the late World War.
The cry of the Huns that they are not able to pay is nothing but bunt-combe and deception, in line with all their previous record. The internal industries and resources of Germany were practically untouched by the desolation of war. Consequently the plan of indemnity was not seriously considered by the Allies at the Conference, but the French, who were the chief adversaries of the Huns, insisted that the indemnity be paid in full,
as well as contrary to human nature. The Allies stood firm for an adequate reparation and the German leaders called the British, French and Italian peoples "idiots" and themselves "not the inferior of Germany." Today Allied troops control the important manufacturing cities of Dusseldorf, Bochum and Ru-hrort and the coal port of Hamberg and are in possession of a wide strip of territory along the Rhine. Germany has no alternative but to submit and is now reaping the harvest of her folly and duplicity. But the most serious aspect of the situation from the American point of view is the dilemma in which it places the new Republican Administration. The President and the Senate have indicated that they are in favor of a separate peace with Germany and so far the latter has failed to ratify the Versailles Treaty or the League of Nations. In one of his campaign speeches last year the new President declared that our troops ought to be brought home from Germany. Just a few days ago, after the new Allied advance, he ordered them to retain their positions. A reversal as to one of the criticisms of Wilson's policy. Is another coming in regard to the Treaty and the League. Were the credible tears of the Timbuktoo Eds big and little, the country over only campagn thunder? There can be no doubt that a large majority of the American people approve the recent course of the Allies. What action will our Government take in the future efforts of the Great Powers to bring about a lasting peace?
Time alone can tell. But Mr. Harding has already added another example of the old saying that it makes a great difference as to whether you are on the outside looking in or on the inside looking out. If Judge Hughes is retained as Secretary of State and given a free hand, we are confident America will keep faith with her Allies. Otherwise we fear the Senate oligarchy will complete our national humiliation.

OHIO COUNTY'S ASSESSMENT
RAISED BY STATE BOARD

The valuation of the property in Ohio County as assessed by the County Tax Commissioner is $11,- 300,457. The State Tax Commission proposed a raise in the valuation of farm lands $1,000,000, and the valuation of town lots $50,000. However, a committee, consisting of W. C.
Blankenship, Nat Lindley and R. B.
Martin, went to Frankfort and succeeded in persuading the Commission to reduce the raise to $555,000 on lands etc. and to $25,000 on town lots.

LOCAL LEGIONAIRES TO GIVE PLAY

At a called meeting, last Friday night, Ohio County Post No. 44 The American Legion unanimously decided to present a play, the proceeds to go to a worthy cause. The date agreed upon was March 30, but because this date would probably conflict with the plays to be given by the Seniors and Juniors of Hartford High School, the play will not be given until some time later.

EDUCATIONAL BOARD MEM-BERS DRAW LENGTH OF TERM

At the meeting held by the County Board of Education, last week, the members cast lots to determine the length of term that each should

each; W. S. Hill 2 years; Mrs. W. O.
Read, 3 years and Nat Lindley, 4

COLORED BRETHREN WANT TO RUN CHRISTIAN COUNTY

comes more particularly within the province of mere man. The natural resources and capabilities of Hartford as a manufacturing and distributing center are excellent. With almost unlimited coal deposits in the vicinity and backed by a progressive agricultural community, as we are,
there is at present but one cloud on our horizon. That is the lack of adequate transportation facilities.
But in the way of improvement of our public highways, both the County and the State are making substantial progress and in a decade,
with Federal aid also, we will undoubtedly have a good system of public roads. For a number of years we have enjoyed a more or less satisfactory railroad service. But it has needed competition, which is coming, it is rumored, in the form of a freight packet line to Evansville.
Hartford's future is brightening.
Now is the time for concerted and systematic action by our business men looking toward the establishment or development of local industries. Where is our Chamber of Commerce or Commercial Club? The women of the town are awake; Men of Hartford, it is now up to you.

For the past two months five colored influential citizens have been insisted upon to run for important county offices. These men paid little attention to these requests, but these requests have developed into demands and have been so persistent that these five men have taken the matter under advisement. These demands are based on the facts that the Republican party in this county is made up of 80 per cent of our group, and the failure of our group getting proper recognition for support rendered. Without doubt if the five men now considering making the race for the respective positions, viz.; Sheriff, County Court Clerk, Jailer, County Attorney and Assessor, they will get the entire support of our group. It is expected that the five men will make their announcement in the near future.

Realizing that this is a free country and the colored man is a citizen thereof, we see no reason why he should not hold office.

RURAL-CARRIER EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for County Tax Commissioner was not officially advertised locally has puzzled a few of our fellow-citizens. Some Democrats suspect a repetition of "keep em off the ballot" tactics. Some Republicans may conclude that they have been given a demonstration of "machine" efficiency, a sort of try-out of the "steam roller," as it were.

CAPT. FOX ADDRESSES
ST HOOI CHILDREN

Capt. S. K. Cox visited Mrs. S. O.
Wright, mother of Capt. St. Hooi, and spent an hour with her, during which he related his experiences in the service. He was living in Butler country at the outbreak of the war and went to Hartford to enlist in the old Army Regt. As the war progressed Capt. Cox was sent from the front to private to that of captain.
The pupils listened with great attention
while he recounted many experiences. Among others he told of carrying a mortally wounded soldier off the field and when the soldier was dead was near and having no
paper, he wrote his will on Capt.
Cox's back. The will was later copied on paper, and is now on record in the Clerk's office here. He urged upon the pupils the value of being well drilled and keeping cool heads.

A GOOD HAUL

(Wilmore Enterprise)

R. S. Coghill had the big sugar tree that stood on the side of the road just across from the water trough, cut last week in order to secure the honey from a swarm of bees that have been working near the top for a number of years. About 50 pounds of honey was taken besides the tree making enough wood to enable Jim Long and Ben Scott to get through the rest of the winter without buying any coal. The tree was over 100 years old.

For the World's Title

Patrons of a Boston restaurant
noticed tacked on the wall a sheet of paper on which was printed in bold characters:

"The umbrella in the stand below belongs to the champion heavyweight fighter of the world. He is coming right back."

Five minutes later umbrella and paper had disappeared. In their place was another notice:

"Umbrella is now in possession of the champion Marathon runner of the world. He is not coming back."

Might as Well

Even Abe Lincoln, though never noted for his beauty, had some pride in his appearance. One day, the story is told, while going down the street, he met a man who looked him over closely and drew a gun on him.

"Stranger," the man said. "I swore that if I ever met anyone homelier than I was, I'd shoot him
on sight."

"Brother," drawled Abe, "if I'm homelier than you I reckon you
might as well."

In a front line trench, not many yards from the German lines, a dusky doughboy with a mighty grievance and two African field pieces was just starting to reach a distant point in the shortest length of time when hauled back by his sergeant.

"You aims to suicide, boy?" inquired the latter. "Whah you all a company of Germans at St. Mihiel,

"Leave me be, sergeant," retorted to be observed were a few scraps of the doughboy. "Ah's gwine back to gray cloth scattered about.

BEER AND WINES GIVEN
SAME STATUS AS WHISKY

Can be Made and Sold for Medicinal Purposes; No Limitation on Prescriptions

Washington, March 12.—Beer and wines are given the same status as whisky under an opinion by the attorney general, made public, by the bureau of internal revenue.

The ruling is one of the most important since the advent of national prohibition and it makes possible that all alcoholic liquors can be used for medicinal or other non-beverage purposes, and for all to be manufactured and sold for these purposes subject only to the limitations of the Volstead act on non-beverage intoxicants.

The opinion was written by former Attorney General Palmer the day before he retired from office and was in reply to a series of questions from the internal revenue and prohibition officials bearing on the construction of half a dozen mooted questions in the law.

The opinion, one of the most comprehensive dealing with the question of prohibition, expressly states that there must be no limitation on the use of liquors for non-beverages purposes except that prescribed by congress in limiting the sale of spirituous liquors, to one pint for ten days. The question of limitation thus, the opinion said, is left to the good faith of the physician.

Limitation Solely Up to Doctor
"Subject to this limitation," the opinion continued, "obviously there has been committed not to the judgment of the commissioner of internal revenue and the secretary of the treasury, but to the professional judgment of the physician, the question of the quantity of liquor that may be used to advantage as a medicine in each case."

"As to the question I think the intention was to leave the physician unfettered by government control, but subject to be dealt with criminally and by revocation of his permit if he acts in bad faith."

The opinion, existence of which became known Sunday, was signed by the then Attorney General Palmer and was dated March 3.

New Regulations Expected
Commissioner Williams, in making public the opinion, did so without comment, saying that he had not had opportunity to discuss the subject with Prohibition Commissioner Kramer and therefore had prepared no regulations to carry out the construction of the law by Mr. Palmer. He said, however, that the bureau would give the matter its immediate attention and expected to prepare some regulations at a very early date.

Mr. Palmer also held that the government was without authority to limit the number of permits to manufacture or sell within any state or locality.

"I cannot believe," he said, "that it was the intention that the executive officers should have authority to say that one reputable druggist in a community should have a permit and another equally reputable should not."

With respect to sales for any non-beverage purpose, Mr. Palmer said:

"On the whole I am of the opinion that there is no authority to limit the number of permits, either locally or for the country as a whole because the commissioner and secretary of the treasury may be of the opinion that a large number are not necessary."

May Lift Ban On Withdrawals
Internal revenue officials are considering removal of the ban prohibiting withdrawals of liquor from warehouses, Commissioner Williams said. The order was issued last December to permit wholesale liquor dealers to dispose of their stocks on hand and Mr. Williams said he believed that the purpose of the order practically had been accomplished.

The decision of revenue and prohibition officials not to grant permits to wholesale dealers hereafter, putting an end to their business, will stand, according to Mr. Williams, who added that there was no reason for a third party to engage in the handling of liquor. The law provides that the retail druggist may purchase direct from the warehouse, and on that basis Mr. Williams believed the decision of the enforcement officials should stand.

No Way To Prescribe Beer
Louisville, Ky., March 12.—No regulation has ever been promulgated permitting the prescribing of beer for medicinal purposes. It was pointed out by Elwood Hamilton, collector of internal revenue, when his attention was called to the fact that

Attorney General Palmer's opinion mentioned beer as well as liquors and wines.

Mr. Hamilton said that since prohibition became effective no application has been made by a distillery or brewery in Kentucky for permission to manufacture whisky or beer for non-beverage purposes. He did not anticipate any such applications, he said, in view of the fact that distilleries all have supplies of whisky they cannot dispose of, and no regulation had been made providing for prescribing of beer by physicians. Should any application be made it would be referred to Washington.

Regarding possibility of removal of limitation of liquor prescriptions to Kentucky physicians to 400 a year, Mr. Hamilton said that prescription blanks do not come under his office, being handled by State Prohibition Director Paul Williams, Lexington.

An official of the Central Consumers' company, expressed the belief that local breweries, satisfied with manufacture of nearbeer and other soft drinks, would not make application for permit to manufacture beer for non-beverage purposes.

SAYS MAIL ROBBERIES ARE DUE TO "UNREST"

Washington, March 11.—Ascribing the recent increase in mail robberies to general unrest and intensified criminal tendencies, Postmaster-General Burleson, in a letter read in the House, declared enactment of laws unsupported by public opinion provoked breaches of the peace and contempt for the courts.

The letter was addressed to and read by Representative Black, Democrat, Texas, and denounced as an important factor in the development of crime "the disposition on the part of certain judicial officers, notably in New York, Washington and Chicago, to impose nominal punishments when criminals are apprehended."

Reading of the letter raised a storm of objections, several members interrupting Representative Black with objections to its entrance into the House record. Representative Goodykoontz, Republican, West Virginia, objected most strenuously.

"I want to expunge that letter from the record," he declared. "We have no time to listen to such rot as that."

The letter went into the record, however.

The postmaster-general declared criminals were encouraged by the "mendacious and fallacious policy pursued by a commercialized press." The power of suggestion, as outlined by newspaper accounts of crimes, encouraged others to break the law, he said.

"Such newspapers," he added, "have not only become a menace to society, but are becoming a danger to government itself."

WILSON AND CABINET MOVE THEIR LIQUOR

Washington, March 12.—Tomorrow will be official liquor moving day in this city.

A permit was issued to Woodrow Wilson, who decided to remove some liquors from the White House to his new home in S. Street. It was explained at the White House that the President's stock was made up largely of gifts.

Permits have been issued to Secretary of War Newton D. Baker and Postmaster General Albert Burleson to transport their supply of liquors to their Ohio and Texas homes.

Similar permits will be issued to all the other Cabinet members who seek them, it is said.

ENGINEER AND FIREMAN BLAMED FOR WRECK

Chicago, March 12.—Responsibility for the wreck at Porter, Ind., in which thirty-seven persons were killed, had been fixed, as far as officials of the railroads involved were concerned, upon Engineer W. S. Long and Fireman George F. Block, of the Michigan Central passenger train. In a statement sent from Kalamazoo to the Associated Press office at Chicago General Manager Henry Shearer of the Michigan Central railroad it was declared that Long and Block "violated rules and regulations in failing to observe and properly obey signal indications."

It was added that they will be forthwith dismissed from the service. The statement was issued at the close of an investigation by railroad officials which has been in progress almost continually since Sunday night.

WILSON CHECKS PARIS EXPENSE ACCOUNT

Data Given Congress by Ex-President Made Public to G. O. P.'S Discomfort

Washington, March 12.—The House Committee on Appropriations made public a message sent to it by former President Wilson, March 1, giving some of the details of the distribution of the $100,000,000 and $50,000,000 funds given to him by Congress for war purposes. David F. Houston, former Secretary of the Treasury, under whose direction the figures were prepared, says they do not represent a final accounting, for the reason that in many instances money which was advanced will or has been paid back either in part or in whole.

M. J. O'Reilly, chief of the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants of the Treasury, writes to Mr. Houston that it would not be physically possible in less than three months time to make a complete examination of the accounts.

The detailed statement of the disbursement of the funds was demanded by the House of Representatives February 15, on motion of Representative Norman J. Gould, New York. Republicans were much dissatisfied when the message was made public and commented that while it shows how the former President had assigned the money, yet no complete balance sheet was furnished.

Through an elaborate system of bookkeeping the combined $150,000,000 fund was actually turned into a revolving fund. Mr. O'Reilly said:

"The principal accounts of the appropriations of $100,000,000 and $50,000,000 were in a number of instances reimbursed in whole or in part, and the amounts of allotments so restored to the appropriation were available for re-allotment, and in this way, each of the appropriation accounts operated after the manner of a revolving fund, as may be seen from the fact that while the total allotments from the $100,000,000 appropriation amounted to $165,602,106, the net allotments were $76,975,952. In the same manner the total allotments from the $50,000,000 appropriation were $58,542,942 and the net allotments $46,365,809."

The balance on hand of the $100,000,000 fund, February 15, was $224,853, and the balance of the $50,000,000 fund $8,373,991, a total of less than $9,000,000. However, the statement was made that it is impossible to ascertain how much will be added to this by reimbursements.

For instance, $15,000 was given to Bernard M. Baruch by the President for his expenses as technical advisor to the American Peace Commission, in Paris, and the vouchers are yet to be checked up.

In many cases money was advanced which was to be covered by future appropriations and the original sum returned. An instance of this was the advance of $1,265,000 to the Shipping Board for the reparation of the crews of the Dutch vessels seized in the Hudson River.

TAYLOR—PAYNE

On Wednesday, March 2, at the court house in Louisville, Miss Blanche Elton Taylor, of Beaver Dam, R. 4, and Mr. John H. Payne, of Spokane, Washington, were united in marriage by Albert Nichol, minister of Central Christian church, Louisville.

Mr. Payne is an employe of the Standard Sanitary Mfg. Co., and is a handsome, moral, sober young man. Miss Taylor has been employed by Herman Straus Co., Market Street, Louisville.

On Thursday, they came to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Taylor, of Beaver Dam, R. 4. On Friday her parents gave them a dinner, and Oh! such a dinner. Those present certainly did justice to that repast. A large number of relatives and friends were present. Everybody and the dogs and sheep were several times kodaked. Piano music was furnished by Miss Beulah Taylor. Everyone seemed to enjoy the day. Though we were sorry to give up one of our loveliest and best girls, we are glad to see her go with such a good man. All wished them many anniversaries of the happy day.—Contributed.

QUALIFICATIONS OF COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS

The County Board of Education will elect a County School Superintendent at its next meeting, April 2, 1921. Under the new school law no candidate is eligible for this office unless he has a certificate in administration, scholarship and supervision from the State Board of Examiners or has the following qualifications:

A state diploma or state certificate and the following qualifications in administration:

One year's work in an established course in administration and supervision in a recognized institution of college or university rank; or three years' experience as superintendent, city or county, or as supervisor within the last five years; or five years' experience as teacher in the last seven years.

Many of those who have applied for the office of School Superintendent in Ohio County do not have these qualifications and as the County Board of Education will elect Superintendent at its meeting April 2, 1921, and there will be no Superintendent's examination or examination for State Certificate or State Diploma before that date, those not now qualified for the position will have no opportunity to meet the requirements.

Those who are qualified and desire to apply for the office should present the proper application to Supt. E. S. Howard, Secretary of the Board, on or before April 2, 1921.
W. S. HILL,
Chairman Board of Education.

THE CAT CAME BACK

Three of Hartford's youthful citizens weary of the monotony of life in a small city held a consultation Saturday and were of the unanimous opinion that the North would suit them better. Acting upon this decision they purchased tickets for Moorman and left on the 3 o'clock "jerkwater express." Arriving at Moorman they hit the trail for Owensboro.

In the meantime the parents got wind of the escapade and notified authorities in that city. Upon the arrival of the boys in Owensboro they were met by a delegation of uniformed citizens and escorted to the office of the chief of police where they were detained until the arrival of their fathers next day. Had the youths escaped the Owensboro delegation, they would have left next day for Boonville, Ind., and other northern cities.

BIG FRUIT CROP IN WARREN IS PROMISED

Bowling Green, Ky., March 10.—The next few weeks will tell the tale as to whether there will be a fruit crop this year in Warren county, and whether prognostications will be closely scrutinized by the fruit growers. With the thermometer standing at 77 Tuesday afternoon, probably the warmest in this section in many years, the peach blossoms began to break in the morning, and by noon many trees were in full bloom. The plum trees have been in bloom since Sunday. The apple and cherry buds were swelling rapidly under the balmy spring weather.

About 3,000 to 4,000 bales of linters and low-grade cotton was destroyed. The origin was unknown.

LANCASTER BANKER DROWNED IN TANK

Lancaster, Ky., March 12.—Benjamin Hudson, 73 years old, bank president, was drowned in a concrete water tank on his farm. He was the wealthiest man in Garrard County.

The banker rode to his farm early last Wednesday morning. When he failed to return for dinner relatives began to inquire. At 12:30 o'clock the body was found in the eighteen-foot tank. It is supposed he climbed the ladder to inspect the water supply and lost his balance. His fingers were worn off at the tips by efforts to save himself. The water was ten feet deep.

For eleven years Mr. Hudson had been president of the Citizens National Bank, Lancaster, having served twenty-seven years as cashier.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. M. K. Denny and Mrs. F. T. Frisbie, Lancaster, and two sons, Shirley Hudson, Lancaster, and Walter Hudson mining engineer, Ecuador, South America. Hudson Frisbie, Centre College student and only grandson, was drowned at Danville last summer.

CRUEL, WIFE SAYS OF HON. CALEB POWERS

Former Congressman Is Charged With Non-support In Divorce Suit

Washington, March 12.—Caleb Powers, former Representative from the Eleventh Kentucky District, is named in a suit for a limited divorce on charges of cruelty and non-support filed in the District of Columbia Supreme Court by his wife Mrs. Anna M. Powers. She asks for alimony and custody of their 3-year-old daughter, also requests that her husband be required to make known the amount of his income.

While representing the Kentucky district in Congress, it is alleged in the petition, Mr. Powers employed his wife as secretary, but he retained one-half of the compensation for the position and required her to pay her living expenses out of the other half. For several years while he was serving in Congress, he compelled his wife to provide the household expenses out of $25 a month, the petition says.

Owns Much Property

The former Representative owns valuable property in Kentucky, Florida and Washington, the petition recites, but he has not given his wife any money for two months. In 1918, according to the complaint, he sold a large tract of land in Knox County, Kentucky, without her consent, for $12,000 and appropriated the proceeds for his own use.

Mrs. Powers charges that her husband "systematically abused and cruelly mistreated her" since about one year after their marriage and that he frequently swore at her and beat her. While they were at Barboursville in January, 1920, the petition alleges, he choked her and left finger prints on her throat.

Alleged Abuses Recited

In the spring of 1918, prior to the birth of her child, the petition charges that after the doctor had ordered Mrs. Powers to bed, her husband demanded that she get up during a visit of his brother, and also cruelly mistreated her. After she had returned from a visit to her mother, he greeted her by saying: "What the hell did you come back for?" The best place for you is back home," it is charged.

On one occasion, Mrs. Powers charges she left their child in her husband's care while she went to a dentist, but on returning she met him on the street and inquired about the baby and he replied: "That kid I left at home squawking itself to death."

NOT YET READY TO DISTRIBUTE G. O. P. PIE

Louisville, Ky., March 13.—Federal patronage in Kentucky will be conferred on persons yet to be selected. It developed when A. T. Hert returned from Washington, where he paid a "friendly call" upon President Harding. In Mr. Hert's opinion, nothing will be done regarding federal patronage until Senator Ernst returns to the state after the adjournment of congress.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surface of the body, thus destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars to anyone that fails to cure. Send for lots of testimonials. Address F. J.
